31st ANNUAL DINNER • SPONSORSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

P. Leo Corcoran Humanitarian Award 2016 Honoree: Wayne Patenaude and Cambridge Savings Bank

Cambridge Savings Bank and its Charitable Foundation have been committed to serving neighbors in their banking communities for 182 years. Caritas Communities and their residents are an important part of the fabric of the community that Cambridge Savings Bank (CSB) is proud to support. Cambridge Savings Bank has been a powerful partner to Caritas Communities for more than 10 years, through generous grants for our supportive services and maintenance of our homes, general operating funds through our Annual Dinner sponsorships, employee fundraisers, checking account promotions and drives to provide our formerly homeless veterans essential items.

At the core of their mission, Cambridge Savings Bank is a major supporter of non-profit and community programs in Greater Boston with a focus on human services, affordable housing, community development and civic initiatives. Every employee is given 16 hours of paid time off each year to volunteer at an established non-profit organization. Since 2003, Cambridge Savings Charitable Foundation has awarded $4.2 million in grants with the mission of improving and enriching the lives of neighbors in their banking communities: Acton, Arlington, Bedford, Belmont, Brookline, Burlington, Cambridge, Concord, Lexington, Lincoln, Medford, Newton, Somerville, Waltham, Watertown, Winchester, Woburn, and the neighborhoods of Allston and Brighton.

Bank President and Chief Executive Officer Wayne Patenaude is passionate about giving back and leads Cambridge Savings Bank with a vision to care for the communities in which they do business. He is a board member of the Cambridge Chamber of Commerce as well as a board overseer at the Concord Carlisle Community Chest, an independent organization that raises funds and provides donations to vital human services organizations that assist Concord and Carlisle residents.

“As a long-time partner of the Northbridge Companies, I have long admired the CSB team for their commitment to support those in need,” states Jim Coughlin, CEO of Northbridge and board member of Caritas. “CSB’s culture fosters commitment to community service.”

Caritas in the Community

THE POWER OF PARTNERSHIPS • 31st ANNUAL DINNER • NOVEMBER 16, 2016

What We Do

At Caritas Communities, we provide very low-income individuals with permanent housing, support, a sense of community and expanded opportunities. For 30 years, Caritas has helped fill the need for safe, secure housing in Greater Boston.

The Power of Partnerships

It takes a strong team to prevent homelessness for lowest-income citizens. It calls for the collaboration of housing specialists, social service professionals, advisers, volunteers and funders. It requires selfless, caring, passionate people partnering together to do the right thing. Caritas knows that our partners make us stronger. 895 very low-income people have a home, support, a community, food, rental assistance, essential household items, in-house libraries, art and writing classes, and, more than anything, hope today because of you. Everyone benefits from the work of partnering to do good. It makes us feel good to help where we can. For our residents, it means everything.

“ I no longer have to live in the shelter or on the streets because Caritas is affordable for people with low income. ”
