THE POWER OF PARTNERSHIPS

It takes a strong team to prevent homelessness for Greater Boston's lowest-income citizens. It calls for the collaboration of housing specialists, social service professionals, volunteers and funders.

It requires selfless, caring, passionate people partnering together to do the right thing. Caritas knows that our partners make us stronger.

Because of you, 895 very low-income people have a home, support, a community, emergency rental assistance, essential household items and, more than anything, hope.

“After being homeless,
my housing is the most important thing to me.”

Tom, Caritas Resident

HONORING

Wayne Patenaude and Cambridge Savings Bank

Cambridge Savings Bank (CSB) and its Charitable Foundation have been committed to serving neighbors in their banking communities for 182 years. At the core of its mission, CSB is a major supporter of non-profit and community programs in Greater Boston, with a focus on human services, affordable housing, community development and civic initiatives. Since 2003, CSB has awarded more than $4 million in grants. Bank President and Chief Executive Officer Wayne Patenaude is passionate about giving back and leads CSB with a vision to care for the communities in which it does business. CSB has been a powerful partner to Caritas for more than 10 years through generous grants for our supportive services and maintenance of our homes, general operating funds through Annual Dinner sponsorships, and employee fundraisers and drives.
