

P. Leo Corcoran Humanitarian Award Honoree

Quincy Miller

President, Eastern Bank

Quincy Miller is President of Eastern Bank, the largest bank headquartered in Massachusetts. He embodies the values of P. Leo Corcoran, demonstrating a commitment to serving those less fortunate through his professional and volunteer efforts.

Our 2021 Honoree

Mr. Miller's journey from the inner city of Harrisburg, PA to Eastern Bank, was inspired by his mother and grandparents. "I want to demonstrate that with the right approach and hard work you can be successful. You have to keep grounded and stay humble. Helping others achieve their goals helps me achieve my goals, which makes the team successful and thus the company," noted Miller in a Lafayette College Alumni profile. Former captain of the Leopards Football team and president of Brothers of Lafayette, Miller credits the leadership skills honed on the field for his early success in the banking industry.

A founding member of the New Commonwealth Racial Equity and Social Justice Fund, Miller has been instrumental in forging a new path where leaders of color from across Boston seek to address the issues of racial equity and income inequality. Deeply committed to serving the communities where he lives and works with a focus on equity and youth, Mr. Miller also serves on the Board of Directors for The Boys and Girls Club of Boston, The Bottom Line, Blue Cross Blue Shield of MA, NACD New England, The Alliance for Business Leadership, and The Greater Boston YMCA Board of Overseers, Board Emeritus of The Greater Boston Food Bank and The Urban League of Eastern Massachusetts.

Eastern Bank has $16 billion in assets and serves eastern Massachusetts, southern and coastal New Hampshire, and Rhode Island. The Eastern Bank Charitable Foundation is a strong supporter of Caritas Communities as well as many organizations serving people in need and has provided over $240 million dollars in charitable grants since 1994.

Quincy Miller