The Road Ahead

Caritas Communities • Housing for All • 36th Annual Gala

In 2020 and 2021, we have suffered a collective trauma. The pandemic has not only been a public health crisis but has also thrown into stark relief the inequities in our society and the fragility of those at the bottom of the wealth spectrum. A crisis will immediately jeopardize the ability of many people to meet their basic needs, including housing. Without Housing for All, a more equitable community can never be achieved.

You can help our residents survive the turmoil with a stable foundation and a path forward.

You can support residents with rental relief and connection to community services such as food, health, employment, and other benefits.

You can help reduce inequities by providing more people with more housing.

You can help residents, and Caritas, plan for The Road Ahead.

P. Leo Corcoran Humanitarian Award Honoree

Quincy Miller

President, Eastern Bank

Quincy Miller is President of Eastern Bank, the largest bank headquartered in Massachusetts. He embodies the values of P. Leo Corcoran, demonstrating a commitment to serving those less fortunate through his professional and volunteer efforts.

Our 2021 Honoree

Mr. Miller's journey from the inner city of Harrisburg, PA to Eastern Bank, was inspired by his mother and grandparents. "I want to demonstrate that with the right approach and hard work you can be successful. You have to keep grounded and stay humble. Helping others achieve their goals helps me achieve my goals, which makes the team successful and thus the company," noted Miller in a Lafayette College Alumni profile. Former captain of the Leopards Football team and president of Brothers of Lafayette, Miller credits the leadership skills honed on the field for his early success in the banking industry.

A founding member of the New Commonwealth Racial Equity and Social Justice Fund, Miller has been instrumental in forging a new path where leaders of color from across Boston seek to address the issues of racial equity and income inequality. Deeply committed to serving the communities where he lives and works with a focus on equity and youth, Mr. Miller also serves on the Board of Directors for The Boys and Girls Club of Boston, The Bottom Line, Blue Cross Blue Shield of MA, NACD New England, The Alliance for Business Leadership, and The Greater Boston YMCA Board of Overseers, Board Emeritus of The Greater Boston Food Bank and The Urban League of Eastern Massachusetts.

Eastern Bank has $16 billion in assets and serves eastern Massachusetts, southern and coastal New Hampshire, and Rhode Island. The Eastern Bank Charitable Foundation is a strong supporter of Caritas Communities as well as many organizations serving people in need and has provided over $240 million dollars in charitable grants since 1994.

The Road Ahead

Caritas Communities · Housing for All · 36th Annual Gala

Housing is a basic human right

Everyone is deserving of safe, stable shelter.

People who are disabled, or able-bodied.

Youth, the elderly, and the middle-aged.

The military Veteran, and the formerly incarcerated.

Those who suffer from mental illness, physical illness, and substance use disorder.

People of all races, religions, ethnicities, immigration status, and identifying as LGBTQ+.

People who struggle to earn a living wage.

All people deserve a home.

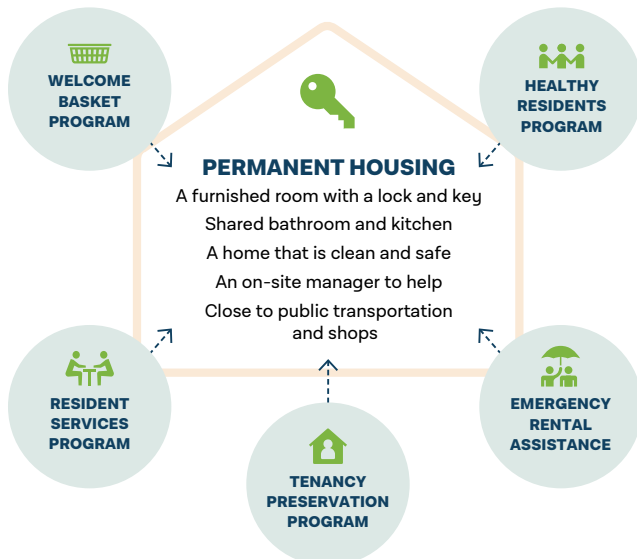

A New Name for Your Gala

We have renamed our Annual Gala “Housing for All,” to celebrate your commitment to providing housing to those who might otherwise be without.

Our Mission

At Caritas Communities, we prevent homelessness by providing very low-income individuals with permanent housing, support, a sense of community, and expanded opportunities. For 36 years, Caritas has helped fill the need for safe, secure housing in Greater Boston.

OUR MODEL FOR SUCCESS:

Delores is a Roxbury resident who lost her job as a result of the pandemic. She has remained housed thanks to the generous support of our rental assistance fund.
